Mr. Spraggery

Dear Sir

I went to looking at the middle the other day to speak to you on the subject of Mrs. Bennett's U.E. claim.

I thought at the time that I had sent you the enclosed aff's which I find among my papers today.

Mr. Lake is a magistrate living in London a highly respectable person.
Messrs. Alder & Co. are of the last.

I saw an aff's certificate in your hands one day made by a Mr. Gault described rather Fellows by name on behalf of some other person there but Mr. Lake is the right man.

Yours truly

Pembroke 4th August 1850

Dear Sir

While in Toronto I perused in the Crown Land Office some papers relative to a claim to scrip of Mrs Mary Perrett deceased as daughter of John Lake deceased &c. I do not know who claimed it but her Heir is Nicholas Lake Esq of London who is the Grandson and Heir at Law of John Lake deceased her eldest brother & who will without delay have recourse to substantiate his claim. Mrs Perrett's husband devised the land bequeathed to her wife but which bequest was cancelled but this device could have no effect. I am requested by Mr Lake to address you.

Will you have the goodness to hand the enclosed Affidavits to him. They relate to a claim of mine on his behalf.

Truly Yours

The Committee agree that the recommendation of to appeals and revised rule apply.

Approved & forwarded same day
Com. to C. C. & D. 11 Aug 1851.

The Petitioner represents that the late Mary Corbett Wife of James Corbett who was entitled to 200 acres of land as the Daughter of John Lake an U. S. Loyalist died without issue, and that in the Petitioner is her Heir at law, and entitled to the benefit of said claim.
Affidavits by Mary Fellows & James Fellows dated 20th July 1850 are filed herein the form which appears that Mary Corbett died in or about the year 1820. Also Affidavits made 20th Aug 1850 by John Fellows & by the Petitioner in which it is stated that the eldest Son of John Lake the U. S. Loyalist was Nicholas Lake of Sidney who died about 40 years since that his eldest Son was Richard Lake of Rawdon who died in the year

Affidavits made 2nd Aug^r 1850 by John Lake & by the Petitioner in which it is stated that the eldest son of John Lake the W^g Loyalist was Nicholas Lake of Sidney
who died about 40 years since that his eldest son was Richard Lake of Rowdon who died in the year 1817 and that the Petitioner Nicholas Lake of Rowdon is his only son — In an Affidavit by Joseph

Green dated 21st July 1851 he declares that Nicholas Lake the Father of the Petitioner's Father died in the (H.M.) year or about the year 1821 without making any Will — An additional affidavit made 1st May 1851 by Lewis Rosebush is also attached. In none of the papers submitted by the Applicant supply proof that his Father died intestate.

It will be observed on reference to the Petition of James Lake of Sidney who it appears is a brother of the Applicant's Father, and with him a son of Nicholas Lake the brother of Mary Perrotte — that he claims the W^g right in question under a bequest in the Will of James Perrotte — The location however was reserved by the Government & was in the year 1838 granted by Patent to W^g Lachance Barronham. Under these circumstances coupled with the fact that it has been the practice of the Government to sanction the claims of those of the same blood as the parties entitled, in preference to acknowledging any right on the part of a husband of a Female child of an W^g Loyalist the Petitioner would appear to have a preferable claim to either of the James Lakes whose Petitions have been reported in this day. & who claim under the Will of James Perrotte — Nicholas Lake's claim is therefore should be subject to the Petitioner's Father Richard Lake being proved a justice that Mary Perrotte's bequest
